

SIETAR Forum 2008

Veränderungsprozesse
international tätiger Organisationen
28. Februar - 2. März 2008 in Bonn

Akteure – Kurzprofile

Amel Karboul, MSc.

Positions:

- Executive Coach, Facilitator and consultant
- Lecturer for MBA-studies/courses

Education:

- Master's degree in mechanical engineering, Germany
- Economics and Management of intangible assets, USA
- Post graduate education in "systemic coaching and intervening", Germany
- Management Trainer Certification, Sweden
- Leadership Development Program (LDP) and Certified 360° Feedback Coach, Centre for Creative Leadership, USA, Europe

Professional Experience:

- Managing Partner consulting group neuwaldegg and research group neuwaldegg
- The Boston Consulting Group; senior consultant
- Daimler Chrysler Corporate University, manager Knowledge transfer and leadership development
- DaimlerChrysler Procurement and Supply: Project leader Technology and Innovation Management
- Mercedes-Benz: International Management Associate Program

Main Areas of Work:

Amel Karboul has been in the field of organization consulting, leadership training, development, and coaching for many years. Her current work in organizations focuses on effectively linking people processes to business outcomes. She encourages individual initiative and leadership from a systemic perspective, in order to achieve clearly defined business results.

- Aligning and Developing Leadership
- Managing Change
- Designing Your Organization
- Building Executive Leadership
- Optimizing Executive Teams – Teambuilding
- Communicating Strategically
- Developing Strategy

Languages:

Arabic, French, English and German